Lisa O'Neill Receives New Leaders in Banking Award from the Connecticut Bankers Association

Lisa O'Neill, Vice President, Senior Human Resources Officer of Connecticut Mutual Holding Company recently was recognized with a 2015 New Leaders in Banking Award from the Connecticut Bankers Association. This prestigious award is given to Connecticut bankers who demonstrate outstanding leadership skills and have made a notable impact within their bank and community.

CMHC President and CEO Stephen Reilly states, "Lisa has displayed incredible dedication and is a team player who has a keen and sincere concern for the welfare of all employees. Her care for human beings does not stop there. It also reaches out into the community in which she works and lives."

Lisa O'Neill started her banking career in 1987 in Operations and moved into Human Resources in 1993. She played integral roles in the merger of Winsted Savings Bank and Northwest Bank for Savings, as well as in the association of Northwest Community Bank with Litchfield Bancorp and the forming of the Connecticut Mutual Holding Company; and later, with the addition of Collinsville Savings Society.

Lisa O'Neill is a member of the Society for Human Resources and past treasurer of Northwest Connecticut Human Resources Association. In the community, she is past Chair of March Dimes WalkAmerica and has volunteered her time for Tour of Litchfield Hills, Special Olympics Penguin Plunge, Community Foundation of Northwest Connecticut Scholarship Committee, and Wisdom House Board and committees.

Lisa O'Neill and her husband Bill reside in Torrington.

Connecticut Mutual Holding Company consists of three separate and independent banks: Collinsville Savings Society, Litchfield Bancorp and Northwest Community Bank. Established in 2001, the mutual holding company was formed to preserve the unique qualities of the member banks and preserve their ability to better meet the needs of the communities they serve. Each affiliate bank retains its name and state charter. Each bank's Board of Directors and senior management staff oversee the operations of their respective banks.
