February 27, 2015 – Information from the IRS regarding Tax-Related Identity Theft:

Tax related identity theft occurs when someone uses your stolen Social Security number to file a tax return claiming a fraudulent refund. Generally, an identity thief will use your SSN to file a false return early in the year. You may be unaware you are a victim until you try to file your taxes and learn that one has already been filed using your SSN.

Warning Signs

- More than one tax return was filed using your SSN
- You owe additional tax, refund offset or have had collection actions taken against you for a year you did not file a tax return
- IRS records indicate you received wages from an employer unknown to you

If You Become a Victim

- File a report with the local police
- File a complaint with the Federal Trade Commission at www.identitytheft.gov or the FTC Identity Theft Hotline at 1-877-438-4338 or TTY 1-866-653-4261
- Contact one of the three major credit bureaus to place a 'fraud alert' on your credit records:
 - Equifax: www.equifax.com or 1-800-525-6285
 - Experian: www.experian.com or 1-888-397-3742
 - TransUnion: www.transunion.com or 1-800-680-7289
- Close any accounts opened without your permission or that have been tampered with
